We have a very important rule. It cannot be broken by any means. Everything must be done on company time between the hours of nine to five and no one is to repeat anything they see or do to anyone outside the club.If you have someone you would like to enter you must not tell them who's in it. You must gain their curiosity by any other means other than exposing other members. If your ready and can hang then shred this welcome letter and come to the lunchroom tomorrow at 11:45am. Bring initiation fee for further instructions. 50 dollars for administrative duties.
